SNOW forecast for next week

Dear parent,

As I am certain you are aware, there is a great deal of snow forecast throughout next week. Dr Renwick is very excited as he intends to film the children outside in the snow!

However, it is important to note that we will endeavour to keep school open if at all possible.

It may be necessary to close certain classes as staff travel long distances to school each day. As you will appreciate, we can't mix staff and children, nor do we have any spare staff to cover if travel is an issue.

If the snow is a problem, I will message through group call and seesaw as near to 7.30am as possible.

Snow arrangements for entry and collection will be as follows if school is able to open:
