World Book Day - Thursday 2nd March 2017

Dear parent,

World Book Day takes place on Thursday 2nd March 2017, and we would like to invite you to join us in helping your child to make the most of this special occasion.

World Book Day celebrates the joy and value of books and reading, especially for children. To help get them started on their reading journey, every child receives a £1 World Book Day Book Token that can either be exchanged for one of TEN special £1 World Book Day books or used to get £1 off any book costing £2.99 or more. You can find out more about the books at worldbookday.com/books.

We have decided not to dress up for World Book day this year and would like children to come to school in their pyjama's to enjoy a 'bedtime' story, with a favourite book they can bring along. There will be different activities happening in school throughout the day as we celebrate books and reading in school. This will include 'Drop Everything and Read' in our beautiful library.

Please send your child to school in night time clothing, rather than purchasing book character costumes which can be very expensive. The staff and children are all looking forward to this special day.

Yours sincerely,

Wendy Angus
