21st March 2014

Dear parent,

Thank you to all parents for attending our parent interviews in school this week. Thank you also to teaching staff for whom these sessions require a great deal of planning and stamina. I know that they enjoyed sharing the children's books with you and celebrating the progress made and standards reached by the children. From parental comments made this week, it is lovely to hear how much you appreciate how well your children are doing.

This fortnight has also seen 30 year 1 children take part in a challenge day at city space. The children enjoyed this experience, taking part in teams and competing against other schools. They were really well behaved and Ms Pickford and the staff were very proud of them.

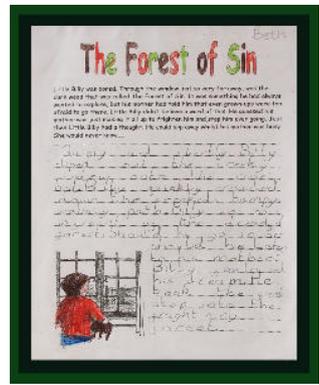

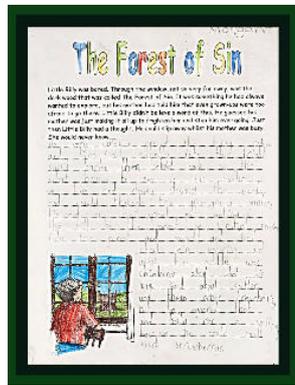

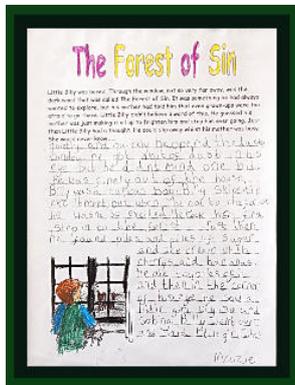

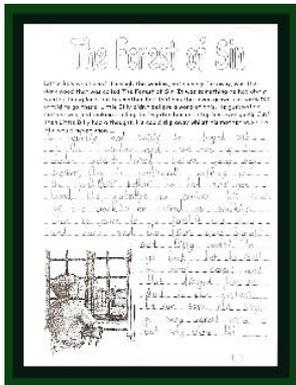

Year 2 gymnasts travelled to Academy 360 to compete in another gymnastics competition. Again, their performances were first class—we have yet to hear if they have progressed to the city final.

Today, class 8 spent this afternoon at the library, enjoying listening to one or two stories and looking at books.

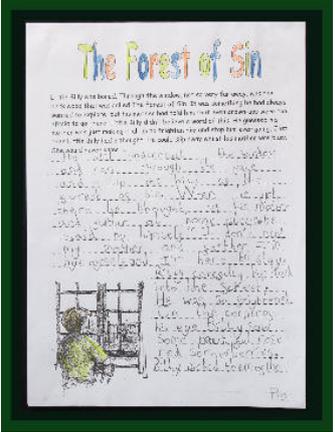

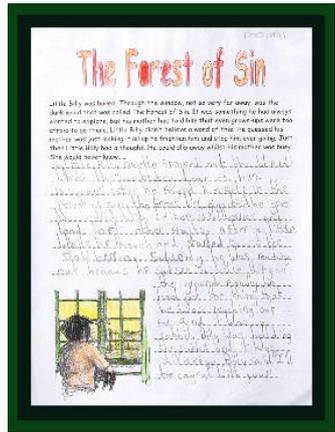

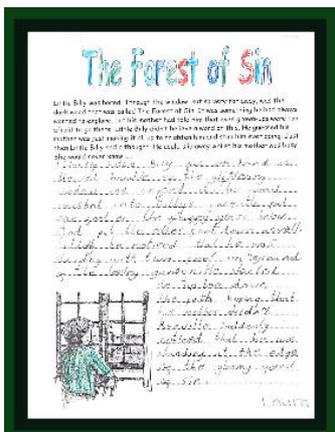

They are very interested in camouflage and created some wonderful pictures this week. Children in nursery have been discovering about stick insects- Mrs Quinn allowed one to crawl up her arm! Again, some super observational drag from their work.

Best wishes

Wendy Angus

A small number of Year 1 and 2 children received training from Ian Thom to be little leaders. They received certificates in assembly this week. The children will help to lead PE lessons and activities.
WELL DONE CHILDREN!

Anti-Bullying Week

Anti-Bullying week will take place the week after next—beginning 31st March. There will be lots of activities happening in classes to support children's developing understanding of the qualities of a good friend, of the characteristics of behaviour that make a 'bully' and what each of us should do if we encounter bullying.

The Anti-Bullying Team

Mrs Angus—the lead person
Mrs Green
The School Council

The school council members in each class have decided that class behaviour champions should have the award for 2 weeks. Unfortunately, Mrs Hope has had to chase up the badges which have not arrived yet.

A small team of children have designed an Anti-Bullying leaflet—thank you Eve and Lara, your work is greatly appreciated.

This leaflet will come out to families, once it has been finalised.
